Fourth Year 2016-2017

Course in: Mercantile Contracts

First semester

Chapter Two: International Sales

1. This chapter introduces the subject of international sales contracts as well as variations in obligations across different countries.
2. The concept of freedom of contract is discussed along with related details.
3. We define the term "shorthand transactions" and elaborate on its meaning.
4. Students also provide meaning for the different terms, words and phrases that appear throughout the material. They also discuss differences and similarities and try to relate synonyms and antonyms that they have studied during this course:

Universal, terms, established, bound,

National laws, valid, as idem, fulfilled, handled, support, freedom of contract, observed, increase, shorthand transactions, specify,
