PERSONAL SUMMARY:

The field of my research mainly focus on cancer and molecular mechanisms that involved in diseases. The cancer researches carry out either by using a well established cancer cell lines or by using a mouse model for tumor initiation, progression and treatment. In such studies, I use different techniques; for instance: primary culture, tumor inoculation, histopathology, immunohistochemistry, conventional PCR, qRT-PCR, mutation analysis, Western Blotting, whole mount analysis of mammary glands, carcinogens treatment, cytokine analysis, apoptosis assay, autophagy flux analysis and several other molecular techniques.
