

3. Friendship and humanity: The little boy who used to work with the man earlier, is still present to care for him every single time..He appears to be the man's only friend..The flowing of tears from the boy's eyes on seeing the condition of old man( at the end) shows that some relations are more than that of blood..and the little boy proved it each time..His assurance of coming along with him next time to catch fish (against his parents wish ) really made me feel that humanity exists and yes, selfless people do exist!
4. Optimism : Despite of failure from 84 days, the man never appeared to slip into depression and nihilism..he remains optimistic enough to begin another day with lots of hope..!!
5. Enjoying your own company: In the entire journey the man was alone, talking to himself, motivating himself..all alone.. Isn't that what our lives are all about..we have to fight our obstacles all alone..not everytime we can have someone with us!!
