Teenage party ends in tears

When Jack and Kelly Harman (1) went away on holiday, they (2) left their teenage daughter alone in the house. Zoë, aged 16, wanted to stay at home. Her parents said she could have some friends to stay. However, Zoë decided to have a party. Things started to go wrong. Forty uninvited guests arrived. They (3) broke furniture, smashed windows, and stole jewellery.

When Mr and Mrs Harman (4) heard the news, they (5) came home immediately.
