

12.3 Join the pairs of sentences in two different ways using so and because.

By Inst. Abdulridha Sholi

1. She went home. She was tired.

- a) She was tired, so she went home.
- b) She went home because she was tired.

2. We didn't enjoy our holiday. The weather was bad.

- a) The weather was bad, so we didn't enjoy our holiday.
- b) We didn't enjoy our holiday because the weather was bad.

3. He worked hard. He passed all his exams.

- a) He worked hard, so he passed all his exams.
- b) He passed all his exams because he worked hard.

