Football is a team sport each team consists of eleven players, one of them is the goalkeeper (goalie).

If one player is hurt a substitute takes his place.

Every game (match) has two halves of forty-five minutes each.

Between the two halves, players take a half time to rest. After rest, the teams change ends.

Each team tries to score goals. The team with the most goals is the winner.

If the result is a tie (draw) an extra period is given to break the tie.

Players are usually given certain positions; defense, midfield and attack.

Football is played in a field (or a pitch) with a ball.
