

-Third Class-

-The eighth Lecture Contents-

(المحاضرة الثامنة)

The conferences leading to the establishment of the U.N

The question of the security of mankind took a place as a controversial matter after the failure of the league of nations (1919), and because of the second world war (1939-1945), which has brought untold sorrow to mankind , main topics of negotiations have started in the struggle against the Axis powers..

The most important conferences which were held leading step by step to the establishment of the U.N organization were various and numerous ,those can be enumerated as the following:-

1. Atlantic charter
2. Quebec conference
3. Moscow conference
4. Tehran conference
5. Dumbarton Oaks conference
6. Yalta Conference
7. San Francisco Conference