

College of Law, Al-Mustansiriyah U.

Fourth Year 2016-2017

Course in: Mercantile Contracts

General description of the course

The course includes legal material presented to students in English whereby they learn legal concept related to what they study in college. The activities include reading material by instructor and students, discussing the legal concepts found in each lecture and explaining the meaning of words that appear throughout the book.

The book is divided into five chapters each discussing a different topic within the domain of mercantile contracts.

The course also includes oral exams, reading exams and pop quizzes, given by instructor, for which students are awarded participation and extra points.

Book info :

Title: Mercantile Contracts

Author: Dr. Majid H. Al-Anbaki, Faculty of Law, Baghdad University

Publisher: Al-Aatic