

A

Q1: Add the suitable coordinating conjunction. Be sure that your sentence is logical.

and yet but so for or

1. I have always enjoyed studying languages, I never had time to learn many.
2. Marcel has not enjoyed living in the United States, has he made many friends there.
3. The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, very rewarding.
4. The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, there are many cultural adjustments to make.
5. The company needed to hire someone who could speak Italian, write it fluently.
6. I have been working hard all year, I am going to take a vacation during the summer.

Q2: Exemplify in a sentence.

- 1- Use (or) to connect similar structure (prepositional phrases)
- 2- Use (but) to connect similar structure (adjectives)
- 3- Use (and) to connect similar structure (infinitives)
- 4- Use (and) to connect similar structure (nouns)

Q3: Connect the sentences using the correlative conjunction between brackets.

1. Peggy Fleming was an Olympic ice skater. She was an Olympic skier. (either..... or)
2. Minai hasn't passed a test yet. Jose hasn't passed a test yet. (neither nor)
3. We need a new house. We need a new car. (not only.... but also).
4. My brothers are arriving tonight. My sister is arriving tonight. (Both.....and)

B

Q1: Add the suitable coordinating conjunction. Be sure that your sentence is logical.

and yet but so for or

- 1- Marcel has not enjoyed living in the United States, has he made many friends there.
- 2- The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, there are many cultural adjustments to make.
- 3- I have always enjoyed studying languages, I never had time to learn many.
- 4- The company needed to hire someone who could speak Italian, write it fluently.
- 5- The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, very rewarding.
- 6- I have been working hard all year, I am going to take a vacation.

Q2: Exemplify in a sentence.

- 1- Use (and) to connect similar structure (nouns)
- 2- Use (but) to connect similar structure (adjectives)
- 3- Use (or) to connect similar structure (prepositional phrases)
- 4- Use (and) to connect similar structure (infinitives)

Q3: Connect the sentences using the correlative conjunction between brackets.

- 1- My brothers are arriving tonight. My sister is arriving tonight. (Both.....and)
- 2- Minai hasn't passed a test yet. Jose hasn't passed a test yet. (Neither nor)
- 3- Peggy Fleming was an Olympic ice skater. She was an Olympic skier. (Either or)
- 4- We need a new house. We need a new car. (Not only.... but also).