

A

Q1: Add the suitable coordinating conjunction. Be sure that your sentence is logical.

and      yet      but      so      for      or

1. I have always enjoyed studying languages, ..... I decided to become a translator.
2. The old man wanted to move in with a relative, ..... not depend on them.
3. The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, ..... there are many cultural adjustments to make.
4. The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, ..... very rewarding.
5. The students in this program must pass three out of five courses, ..... complete a final project.
6. The students in this program must pass three out of five courses, ..... take them again next semester.

Q2: Exemplify in a sentence.

- 1- Use (and) to connect similar structure (prepositional phrases)
- 2- Use (or) to connect similar structure (dependent clauses)
- 3- Use (and) to connect similar structure (verbs)
- 4- Use (but) to connect similar structure (objects)

Q3: Connect the sentences using the correlative conjunction between brackets.

- 1- Jim is running. He is doing push-ups at the moment. (Either ..... or)
- 2- Coffee contains caffeine. Tea contains caffeine. (Both.....and)
- 3- I didn't review very much. I didn't study very hard. (Neither .... nor)
- 4- The Brazilian people are friendly. The Brazilian people are hospitable. (Not only.... but also).

B

Q1: Add the suitable coordinating conjunction. Be sure that your sentence is logical.

and      yet      but      so      for      or

- 1- The old man wanted to move in with a relative, ..... not depend on them.
- 2- The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, ..... very rewarding.
- 3- The life of a foreign student is sometimes difficult, ..... there are many cultural adjustments to make.
- 4- The students in this program must pass three out of five courses, ..... complete a final project.
- 5- The students in this program must pass three out of five courses, ..... take them again next semester.
- 6- I have always enjoyed studying languages, ..... I decided to become a translator.

Q2: Exemplify in a sentence.

- 1- Use (and) to connect similar structure (verbs)
- 2- Use (or) to connect similar structure (dependent clauses)
- 3- Use (but) to connect similar structure (objects)
- 4- Use (and) to connect similar structure (prepositional phrases)

Q3: Connect the sentences using the correlative conjunction between brackets.

- 1- Coffee contains caffeine. Tea contains caffeine. (Both.....and)
- 2- The Brazilian people are friendly. The Brazilian people are hospitable. (Not only.... but also).
- 3- I didn't review very much. I didn't study very hard. (Neither .... nor)
- 4- Jim is running. He is doing push-ups at the moment. (Either ..... or)