

Letter of Credentials

United Kingdom to Japan

London, 12 September 2025

Your Majesty,

It is with great esteem that I, Charles III, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, have the honour to accredit to Your Majesty Mr. Jonathan Edwards as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United Kingdom to Japan.

He is well acquainted with the ties of friendship and cooperation which happily unite our two nations, and he is fully instructed in my desire to strengthen them further.

I therefore request that Your Majesty will give full credence to all that he shall say on my behalf, and that you will receive him with benevolence and confidence, as I assure Your Majesty of my highest regard.

With my best wishes for the prosperity of Japan and the well-being of your people, I remain,

Your Majesty's Good Friend,
Charles R.
