

8

Do's and don'ts

Use got to + must + have to + be to talk about...

- what's new for you? Make sentences about your life
- I don't have to ...
- I have to ...
- get up early every morning
- pay bills
- go to school
- work at the weekend
- go to the gym

WORK, WORK

TEXT Listen to Steven talking about his job. What do you think his job is? Would you like his job? Why? Why not?

Complete the sentences from the interview with words from the box.

don't have to    have to    had to    Do you have to    didn't have to

- 1. I _____ work very long hours.
- 2. I _____ work at the weekend!
- 3. I _____ do the washing-up.
- 4. We _____ leave the books.
- 5. I _____ with you long to get a job.

3. Change the sentences using be. He has to work very long hours.

GRAMMAR SPOT

1. How does got use express possession or an action? (Have you got the book?)

2. How does got use express obligation? (Have you got a driving licence?)

3. How does got use express a question? (Have you got a car?)

4. How does got use express a condition? (If you've got a car, you can drive.)

5. How does got use express a result? (I've got a headache.)

WHAT'S MY JOB?
STEVEN BARNES