

4 Let's go shopping!

GOALS

- We will be able to talk about shopping with things we can buy. Continue around the class.
- We will be able to talk about shopping with things we can buy.
- We will be able to talk about shopping with things we can buy.
- We will be able to talk about shopping with things we can buy.

THE SHOPPING LIST

1. Ask your partner to write a shopping list for the kitchen. Ask him to write a shopping list.
2. Ask your partner to write a shopping list.
3. How many bottles of milk do you need?
4. Two litres.
5. How many eggs?
6. A dozen.
7. And what about potatoes? How many potatoes?
8. A kilo is enough.
9. And butter? How much?
10. Two hundred grams.

GRAMMAR TIP

Can we count with your milk, two milk?
 Can we count eggs, two egg, two eggs?
 When do we say how much...?
 When do we say how many...?

► Grammar reference 4.1.1

2. Match these quantities with the shopping list.

two eggs bottles	six cans
two and a half litres	half a kilo of black ones
200g of butter	four kg ones
two potatoes

Continue the conversation with a partner.

milk	cheese
eggs	onion
potatoes	olives
butter	mineral
bread	water
tomatoes	crisps

